

Warm congratulations on your well-deserved retirement!

We know you've dedicated years of hard work, and we're thrilled you can now focus on the things you cherish most.

We also want to express our sincere gratitude for your generous donations to United Way throughout your career. Every single dollar has made a real difference in the lives of our neighbors facing tough times.

Your commitment to community doesn't end with retirement. Your past support demonstrates the value you place in helping others and creating opportunities to break the cycle of poverty. Your gifts have a lasting impact, leaving a legacy that will benefit generations to come.

As you embark on this exciting new chapter, I invite you to continue your journey with United Way. Here are some ways to stay connected:

- Stay Informed: Understanding our community's challenges equips us to tackle them together. By providing your personal email address, we can keep you updated on our work throughout the year.
- Get Involved: We offer volunteer opportunities and events year-round. Visit unitedwaycassclay.org/get-involved/ to learn more, or feel free to reach out directly.
- Give Back: Your continued support remains vital. We invest in impactful programs that directly address local poverty. Together, we can prevent hunger and homelessness, empower children to succeed, and strengthen families. Consider exploring our various giving options, including Donor Advised Funds, endowments, stock donations, and more. Donate easily at unitedwaycassclay.org by clicking "Give Now."

United Way also offers legacy giving options, allowing you to leave a lasting impact.

I'd be happy to discuss these options with you further if you're interested in learning more.

We truly hope you'll stay connected with United Way. Please don't hesitate to reach out with any questions, updated contact information or if you'd like to know more about how to stay involved.

Cheers to you and all the great things that will come in your retirement,

Dan Klug
